RUNS ON TWO BANKS EASILY WEATHERED

Savings Institution in Boston and Trust Company in Philadelphia Safe.

fifteen deposits, aggregating $3,500, were LEWIS

Philadelphia, July 30.—The Northwestern Trust Company, an uptown institution, to-day weathered a run that began yesterday. A false rumor of the trust company's condition started a line of timid depositors yesterday and caused than to be any to withdraw funds to-day.

When the bank opened this morning $1,000,000 in cash was on hand to pay all demands. During the run a counter movement was started and many business men and others went to the bank to show their confidence by increasing their deposits. The trust company's deposits amounted to more than $8,000,000 when the last statement was issued. The bank remained open beyond the regular closing time to-day to meet demands upon it.

All of the Philadelphia newspapers to-day carried an advertisement inserted by the trust company offering a reward of $10,000 for information leading to the average of the person who circulated the false rumor about the bank. arrest of the person who circulated the false rumor about the bank.

CAMP UPTON SALE WILL BE IN PARCELS U. S. Hopes Thus to Get Some

$80.000 More. The Quartermaster-General, U. S. A., finally has decided to dispose of Camp Upton in small parcels, according to announcements of sale made by Smith and Jaffe, auctioneers and appraisers.

On July last in Washington scaled bids for the camp were opened, but it was found the largest bid, that of L. S. Fulton of Patchogue, L. I., was so low the War Department decided to sell the site in small pieces. They estimated that whereas there were only eight or ten men bidding for the entire camp, there would probably be hundreds of smaller bidders, and the Government in that way receive $50,000 to $50,000 more.
